

Meet KayIsis

KayIsis (15) is a smart, interesting, animal loving teenager who is once again open to the idea of adoption. Her choice to be a vegetarian is due to her love of animals and she hopes to have pets in her adoptive home. KayIsis recently traveled to the northwest USA with her group home and thinks Oregon is beautiful. She also thinks Italy is beautiful and loves the food and culture and would love to travel there one day. KayIsis loves horses and has recently been engaging in a program with horses that she is enjoying. KayIsis enjoys video games and making music on her phone. KayIsis has recently learned she enjoys taking long walks and working out at the gym. She enjoys thrifting for clothes and listening to music. KayIsis would like to have a job and earn money. She loves to cook and would like to attend U of MN to become a biomedical engineer.
