

Is Your Family a Match?

Nexus-PATH Family Healing seeks a two-parent foster home for an active and fun 14-year-old boy named Chris.*

A successful family for Chris will:

- Help him identify interests and find creative outlet
- Support Chris in his pursuit of employment and getting drivers license
- Advocate for his needs to be met at school and with providers
- Understand trauma and its effects

An active family who likes to keep busy and interact through sporting activities would be ideal. Hanging out with friends, playing basketball, and long boarding are some of Chris's favorite things.

An ideal family will not have younger children to allow for full attention toward him. A family for Chris will have the ability to set clear expectations and a consistent routine in their home while following his safety plan. Chris does well with visual cues, such as charts and lists. Building a relationship with him will be important, as he is guarded and slow to trust.

Chris's team would like to identify a family who can provide a fresh start, offering patience and consistency.
