

Meet Rayahna

Rayahna (17) describes herself as talkative, outgoing, funny, helpful, laid back and cautious. She said her friends would describe her as loyal, caring, sweet, and a nice person. She loves street tacos and watching cooking shows. She likes math and the movie Cruella. Rayahna likes all types of music. She likes playing and watching sports; especially basketball, badminton, soccer, and kickball.

Rayahna has her permit to drive and is looking forward to getting her license. Rayahna plans on attending college and studying to be a nurse.

Rayahna is open to the type of family who adopts her. Rayahna would like a family who supports her playing sports and who will teach her how to cook. She is open to the type of family makeup as well as the location where the family lives. She loves kids and is open to siblings. She also loves animals and is open to pets in the home. A family would need to help her maintain contact with her biological siblings.

ICWA applies and all families are being considered at this time. The family must be willing to keep Rayahna connected to her Native American culture as this is something that is important to her.
