

Meet KayIsis

KayIsis (15) is a smart, interesting, animal loving teenager who is once again open to the idea of adoption. Her choice to be a vegetarian is due to her love of animals and she hopes to have pets in her adoptive home. KayIsis recently traveled to the northwest USA with her group home and thinks Oregon is beautiful. She also thinks Greece is beautiful and loves the food and culture. She would love to travel to Greece one day. KayIsis loves horses and would like to ride. She enjoys being on her phone and the video game SIMs. KayIsis has recently learned she enjoys taking long walks and working out at the gym. She enjoys shopping and listening to music. KayIsis would like to have a job and earn money. She loves to cook would like to attend college to become a food scientist.
