Independent Auditor's Report

The Board of Directors
Nexus Diversified Community Services

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Nexus Diversified Community Services (NDCS), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of NDCS as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of NDCS and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about NDCS's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of NDCS's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about NDCS's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Note 1 - Principal Activity and Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

Nexus Diversified Community Services (NDCS) is a nonprofit Minnesota corporation, other than a private foundation, organized pursuant to Chapter 317 of Minnesota statutes and is exempt from federal income taxes under code section 501(c)(3).

The mission of NDCS is to support Nexus Family Healing (previously referred to as 'Nexus') and its affiliates (described below). With missions of strengthening lives, families, and communities through cornerstone values of honesty, responsibility, courage, care, and concern and to provide families and communities with an array of quality services that promote the development of healthy family relationships and supportive living environments.

Related Party Activity

NDCS is part of an affiliated nonprofit group that shares common management through affiliation agreements and agreements for administrative services. Other members of this affiliated nonprofit group are: Nexus Family Healing, Nexus – PATH Family Healing, Nexus – Kindred Family Healing, Nexus – FACTS Family Healing, Nexus – Woodbourne Family Healing, Woodbourne Charitable Trust, and Nexus Foundation for Family Healing. Transactions entered into with these affiliates have been identified within these financial statements as related party transactions (Note 8). Based on the nature of the relationship with above noted entities, there are no requirements to consolidate these entities into NDCS's financial statements.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements contained herein have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

All cash and highly liquid financial instruments with original maturities of three months or less, which are neither held for, nor restricted by, donors for long-term purposes, are considered to be cash and cash equivalents.

Investments

Investment purchases are recorded at cost, or if donated, at fair value on the date of donation. Thereafter, investments are reported at their fair values in the statements of financial position. Net investment return/(loss) is reported in the statements of activities and consists of interest and dividend income, realized and unrealized capital gains and losses, less external and direct internal investment expenses.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost when purchased, or if donated, at fair value on the date of donation. NDCS follows the practice of capitalizing all expenditures for property, improvements, and equipment in excess of $500; the fair value of donated property and equipment is similarly capitalized.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets ranging from 3 to 39 years, or in the case of capitalized leased assets or leasehold improvements, the lesser of the useful life of the asset or the lease term. When assets are sold or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related depreciation or amortization are removed from the accounts, and any remaining gain or loss is included in the statement of activities. Costs of maintenance and repairs that do not improve or extend the useful lives of the respective assets are expensed currently.

The carrying values of property and equipment are reviewed for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable from the estimated future cash flows expected to result from its use and eventual disposition. When considered impaired, an impairment loss is recognized to the extent carrying value exceeds the fair value of the asset. There were no indicators of asset impairment during the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020.

Net Assets

Net Assets, revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor- or grantor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor (or certain grantor) restrictions.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor- (or certain grantor-) imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity. NDCS reports contributions restricted by donors as increases in net assets with donor restrictions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. A donation is released from restriction when it is spent for its specific purpose, or when a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-imposed restrictions are released when a restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, NDCS did not have any net assets with donor-imposed restrictions.

During the year ended December 31, 2020, $188,058 of restricted net assets were released from restriction and transferred to Nexus Foundation for Family Healing. Nexus Foundation for Family Healing is a related party to NDCS whose mission is to provide support to Nexus Family Healing and its affiliates. An additional amount of $38,116 was released from restriction during the year ended December 31, 2020, that had been restricted for Youth Without Resources.

Revenue and Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized from administrative services as the services are provided. Revenue is earned by NDCS on an annual basis based on 13% of the gross payroll of each individual affiliate, plus additional amounts that may be charged to each affiliate in accordance with the administrative services agreements. All services are transferred from NDCS to the individual affiliates over a period of time (annually).

Revenue is recognized from lease revenue as the services are provided. Revenue is earned by NDCS on an annual basis, based rates determined in the lease agreements. All services are transferred from NDCS to the individual affiliates over a period time (annually).

Debt Issuance Costs

Debt issuance costs are amortized over the period the related obligation is outstanding using the straight-line method. The straight-line method is a reasonable estimate of the effective interest method. Debt issuance costs are included within long-term debt in the statements of financial position. Amortization of debt issuance costs is included in interest expense in the accompanying financial statements.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of program and supporting services activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. The statement of functional expenses presents the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Accordingly, certain costs may be allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited. The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributed to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. All other expense categories are allocated on the basis of actual expenses incurred.

Income Taxes

NDCS is organized as a Minnesota nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3), qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vii), and has been determined not to be a private foundation under Section 509(a)(3). NDCS is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, NDCS is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purpose. NDCS has determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS.

NDCS believes it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. NDCS would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates, and those differences could be material.

Financial Instruments, Investments and Credit Risk

Deposit concentration risk is managed by placing cash and money market accounts with financial institutions believed by NDCS to be creditworthy. At times, amounts on deposit may exceed insured limits or include uninsured investments in money market mutual funds. To date, no losses have been experienced in any of these accounts. Credit risk associated with accounts receivable and promises to give is considered to be limited due to high historical collection rates and because substantial portions of the outstanding amounts are due from affiliates of NDCS. Investments are made by diversified investment managers whose performance is monitored by NDCS. Although the fair values of investments are subject to fluctuation on a year-to-year basis, NDCS believes that the investment policies and guidelines are prudent for the long-term welfare of NDCS.

Subsequent Events

NDCS has evaluated subsequent events through April 29, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 2 - Liquidity and Availability

Financial assets available for general expenditure, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the statement of financial position date, comprise of the following:

	2021	2020
Cash and equivalents	$ 130,015	$ 217,570
Operating investments	41,715,909	37,854,489
	$ 41,845,924	$ 38,072,059

NDCS regularly monitors liquidity required to meet its operating needs and the needs of its affiliates. NDCS has financial assets available to meet general expenditures over the next 12 months. Please see NDCS's statement of cash flows which identifies the sources and uses of NDCS's cash generated by operations for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020.

Note 3 - Fair Value Measurement

Certain assets and liabilities are reported at fair value in the financial statements. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal, or most advantageous, market at the measurement date under current market conditions regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. Inputs used to determine fair value refer broadly to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may be observable or unobservable. Observable inputs are inputs that reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on the best information available. A three-tier hierarchy categorizes the inputs as follows:

Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that can be accessed at the measurement date.

Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, and market-corroborated inputs.

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. In these situations, inputs are developed using the best information available in the circumstances.

In some cases, the inputs used to measure the fair value of an asset might be categorized within different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In those cases, the fair value measurement is categorized in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement. Assessing the significance of a particular input to entire measurement requires judgment, taking into account factors specific to the asset. The categorization of an asset within the hierarchy is based upon the pricing transparency of the asset and does not necessarily correspond to an assessment of the quality, risk, or liquidity profile of the asset.

A significant portion of investment assets are classified within Level 1 because they are comprised of common stocks and open-end mutual funds with readily determinable fair values based on daily redemption values. Mutual funds are invested and traded in the financial markets. U.S. Government obligations are valued by the custodians of the securities using pricing models based on credit quality, time to maturity, stated interest rates, and market-rate assumptions and are classified within Level 1. Corporate bonds are valued using pricing models maximizing the use of the observable inputs for similar securities; this includes basing value on yields currently available on comparable securities of issue with similar credit ratings and are classified within Level 2.

Note 5 - Major Customers

A major portion of the Organization's revenue is dependent upon the related entities: Nexus Family Healing, Nexus – PATH Family Healing, Nexus – Kindred Family Healing, Nexus – FACTS Family Healing, Nexus Foundation for Family Healing, and Nexus – Woodbourne Family Healing. The loss of revenue from these related entities could have a material adverse effect on NDCS. During the year ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, these entities accounted for 100% and 91%, of revenue exclusive of investment income, respectively. See Note 8 for amounts due to/from the related entities as of December 31, 2021 and 2020.

Note 6 - Bonds and Notes PayableIndian Oaks Academy Campus

On September 6, 2013, Nexus Diversified Community Services, with Nexus Family Healing as a guarantor, participated in a municipal bond offering in cooperation with the Village of Manteno in Illinois. Capital Improvement Revenue Bonds in the amount of $10,000,000 were issued by the Village of Manteno. The primary use of these funds was to purchase and construct a new campus at Nexus Family Healing's Indian Oaks location. Primary collateral for the bonds are buildings, building contents, and land located in the Village of Manteno. Additionally, the bond documents identify a security interest in all operating bank accounts of NDCS and Nexus Family Healing as they pertain to the Indian Oaks Academy operation and accounts receivable of Nexus Family Healing that are related to its Indian Oaks Academy operation.

The bonds are payable in monthly installments over a 20-year period beginning October 1, 2013, and continuing until September 1, 2033, at which point all remaining principal and interest is due. The monthly installment amounts are $53,194 which includes principal and interest at 4.08% per annum. The effective interest rate for 2021 is 4.16%.
